A SATISFIED READER OF MASS NOTES

My Mom Says:

"Hi, I enjoyed the notes for this week. Very insightful more than what the priest had to say today. I am also doing the study of Paul It is very interesting to learn of all the Jewish laws. Do you think the Pharisees were more interested in outward appearance than what was in the heart specifically, how they posted the law over the door? It must have been a total transformation for Paul who was raised in such a strict home. Thanks, Mom."

What People are Saying about Mass Notes:

Matthew

I have been reading the Sunday Mass Study Notes for about 12 months and it has been very helpful in my study of the scriptures before mass each weekend. The reflections and commentaries are very well thought out and written and help me to find what God is trying to tell me and to better help me carry on that message to others during the week. I most like when other scripture passages are brought in for reference, as this is something that I try to do myself as well, and the references I look at are not always the same as in the mass notes, giving me a different perspective. I also appreciate when the readings are given more context, either talking about or explicitly showing the verses before or after a reading. This is always very helpful, especially when I am not as familiar with a particular reading. I hope and pray that this ministry continues and mass notes can be brought each week to myself and others in the Church. Thank you and may God bless you and keep you.

Dear Sir, I As a 79 year old retired priest, who has to prepare homilies for varied groups, nursing home residents, residents of assisted living homes and frequently for parish congregations I find your notes extremely helpful.

I love these notes. These notes help me explain to my students the points that what Jesus is saying is important even today. The passages of the narrow gate are one of my favorite passages in the Bible. Keep up the good work, you're reaching the audience of your audience. Blessings

What's the structure of the Sunday Mass Study Notes ?

The weekly Sunday Mass Study Notes design plan follows a reverse A-B-C acronym: Context, Big Idea, and Application. Each reading begins with an introduction section covering the context. Then the mass reading is given followed by an explanation of what it means, the big theological idea and finally the application. We use the historical / grammatical approach of interpretation.
