Study Notes for the Sunday Mass Published by Christians for Christ Ministries. We are a non-denominational Christian ministry that seeks to encourage and facilitate Christians in studying the Holy Scriptures. "For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus." 1 Timothy 2:5

Our Authors and Editors

The following people contribute to the content on Christians for Christ. Each of these people have received theological training at the Master's level or above.

Study Notes for the Sunday Mass Published by Christians for Christ Ministries. We are a non-denominational Christian ministry that seeks to encourage and facilitate Christians in studying the Holy Scriptures. "For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus." 1 Timothy 2:5

Jim Hill lives in Winona Lake, Indiana, and is married to Dr. Christy Hill. He is employed in the software industry for a firm that develops and sells document scanning and forms processing software. His wife Christy is a professor at Grace Theological Seminary.

Jim has earned a Master of Arts in Theological Studies from Grace Theological Seminary, a Master's of Business Administration from the University of Detroit – Mercy, and a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Western Michigan University. He was born in a loving Catholic family and faithfully attended the Church for the first 35 years of his life. He wants Christians to study the Bible, which is why he writes the Sunday Mass Study Notes each week.

Jim co-owned a software and consulting company in Michigan for several decades and, before that, worked as an engineer at Ford Motor Company in Dearborn, Michigan.

Marla lives in Elkhart, Indiana, and is married to Curt. She and her husband are missionaries with SonSet Solutions, a Christian organization that assists other ministries worldwide with their technical ministry needs, especially in Christian radio/media and clean water.

Marla earned a Master of Arts in Theological Studies from Grace Theological Seminary and serves at her church, teaching the Bible to high school students. She wants to help people grow closer to God through a deeper understanding of the Bible.

Marla entered into glory on May 21, 2021. You can view her Legacy page here.

Study Notes for the Sunday Mass Published by Christians for Christ Ministries. We are a non-denominational Christian ministry that seeks to encourage and facilitate Christians in studying the Holy Scriptures. "For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus." 1 Timothy 2:5

Jesse Deloe lives in Winona Lake, Indiana, with his wife Gladys. They have two adult sons and enjoy their four grandchildren. Both are retired but remain active in church and community activities. Jesse has served in various pastoral and administrative positions in church-related organizations. He also was senior editor in a Christian book publishing company and continues to work as a freelance editor.

Jesse graduated from Indiana University with a major in French and holds a Master of Divinity degree from Grace Theological Seminary. He also did doctoral studies at Ball State University. His goal is to develop written material that enhances a Christian's Bible study and helps him or her grow as a committed follower of Jesus Christ.

Dr. Christy Hill is a professor at Grace Theological Seminary. She has earned a PhD from Talbot School of Theology in the area of Christian Education, a Master of Christian Education at Talbot, and a Bachelor of Arts from Wheaton College. She has published articles in the area of Spiritual Formation, also known in other circles as "Christian character development." Christy lives with her husband Jim in Winona Lake, Indiana.